

● A FIRST FOR RSVP'S SILVER INFOCOMM JUNCTION

When we re-opened our office on 10 February to usher in the new year of the Monkey, we did it with a big bang.

Thanks to the hard work of Skills Future Working Committee, RSVP's Silver Infocomm Junction (SJI) can now provide ICT workshops under WDA's Skills Future Scheme.

This means that all Singaporeans aged 50 years and above can enrol in our workshops utilising their $500 credit given by the Government.

● MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The RSVP Board and senior staff met on January 21 and 22 to review RSVP's strategic direction. This is an exercise we have been conducting regularly for many years. We do this to ensure our mission remains relevant and to identify new social needs where senior volunteers can offer value.

It was an open and cordial meeting where all participants spoke their minds freely. Many ideas and viewpoints were exchanged. We reflected on some of our past practices and policies. We spent much time discussing how to grow our active membership...

● SATELLITE IT CLINIC OPENS AT WHAMPOA

In collaboration with IDA and Beyond Social Services, RSVP Singapore has set up a Satellite IT Clinic outside its own premises to reach out to more seniors who are in need of IT related services. Operating hours are from 2pm to 5pm, on every 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month. Located at Beyond Social Services (Whampoa outlet), the venue has many advantages. Whampoa being an older estate has a larger senior community and our IT services will be more accessible to them. Seniors with CPUs or bulky laptops will now have less difficulty to bring these devices for repair...
