WHO SAYS LEARNING FROM THE PAST IS BORING?

- Pioneer Generation Event, an event that brings intergenerational learning to greater heights

According to research by Dr. Gruenewald, a renowned social and health psychologist who focuses on the mind-body processes that play a role in healthy ageing, elders engaging in activities they feel are meaningful and beneficial to others promotes better mental and physical well-being in later life, including increased longevity. In conjunction with Senior Volunteer Week 2014, RSVP organized a "Pioneer Generation (PG) Event" on 13 September 2014 at the Tim Palace - SAFRA, Toa Payoh.

PAC participates in TTSH Photography Act Exhibition

Photographs taken by our Photography Activity Circle (PAC) were showcased at the recent Photography Art Exhibition organised by Tan Tock Seng Hospital (TTSH) under its Act of Healing Programme from 30 September to 3 October. Featuring 100 works taken by our PAC members, the exhibition drew the attention of many visitors and brightened up the hospital environment. Well done PAC!
