FOCUS GROUP DISCUSSION WITH SENIORS ON SMART NATION

An engagement session on the government's Smart Nation Initiative was held with some 60 seniors at RSVP Singapore on 26 Jan 2015. It was jointly organised by the Smart Nation Programme Office (SNPO) and RSVP Singapore. Gracing the occasion was Vivian Balakrishnan, Minister for Environment and Water Resources and also Minister-in-Charge of SNPO.

The event was aimed at bridging the digital divide especially among seniors and to encourage citizens to embrace technology and smart solutions to improve their everyday lives.

Message from President

Dear fellow members,

I begin this message with a wish for you, your family and loved ones - a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous Lunar New Year!

The past year has been wonderfully exciting and successful for RSVP. We have made good progress on many fronts: a better understanding of our volunteering mission; more sponsors, donors and partners recognising our work……

Facts on RSVP

RSVP's first newsletter, the primary means of communication with members, was an 8- page photocopied circular churned out on an ad-hoc basis. RSVP Network, the printed magazine, was produced and launched in October 2000.

ABOUT RSVP SINGAPORE

RSVP Singapore The Organisation of Senior Volunteers is a non-profit organisation launched by the then Prime Minister Goh Chok Tong in October 1998 and approved as an Institution of Public Character in 1999. Its mission is to provide opportunities for seniors to serve the community with their talent and experience through purpose-driven volunteerism. Its major programmes are Cyberguide, Mentally Disadvantaged Outreach, Mentoring, Changi Service Ambassadors, My Buddy, Enriching Lives of Seniors, Learning Journey and Senior Guiding.
