RSVP Singapore Chinese New Year Gathering 2015

More than 70 members turned up in their finest traditional apparel, greeting each and everyone they met "Gong Xi Gong Xi" as they made their way into the multi-purpose hall for the RSVP Singapore Annual Chinese New Year Gathering on 27 February 2015.

The premise was filled with an air of festive spirit lifted by the Chinese festive songs played in the background and occasionally interspersed with live karaoke singing among some of the attendees before the function officially kicked-off…

Message from the Board

Dear members: Gong Xi Fai Cai! I hope you have all recovered from the long holidays and from all that eating and drinking. I'm not Chinese but my wife is so I happily celebrate the lunar new year too with my in-laws and their relatives.

With the new year let's redouble our efforts to be active RSVP Singapore volunteers. As you know we have decided to take senior volunteerism to the national level this year by having a National Senior Volunteer Month (NSVM) in September, an appropriate time to do so as the country also celebrates SG 50…

FLAG DAY

4TH APRIL 2015

As part of our fund raising efforts, RSVP Singapore has been allocated a Flag Day slot by the National Council of Social Service. This is on Saturday 4 April 2015. It is a major fund raising event for RSVP Singapore and the funds raised will be used in our community service programmes that benefit more than 150,000 beneficiaries.

We need many more "Helping Hands" to help us achieve a greater collection of funds on that day. Help us to help others in our Community!

ALL CASH DONATION DRAW

9TH MAY 2015

Calling all RSVP Members!

Our Charity is partially funded by government grants and because of the positive impact of our programmes and our desire to add more beneficiaries to our programmes, our funding must be in place to go forward. To achieve that, we will be conducting a Charity Donation Draw on 9 May 2015. We aim to raise at least $100,000 with this fundraising drive through direct appeals and sale of donation draw tickets priced at $2.00 each. Please support us!
