50PLUS EXPO 15 to 17 May 2015

RSVP Singapore participated in the 50Plus Expo held at the Suntec City Convention Centre from 15 to 17 May 2015.

Besides promoting senior volunteerism, RSVP also used the platform to promote SG50 Lifelong Learning free enrichment and IT courses. These courses were open to seniors who are Singaporean or PRs, aged 50 years and above. Due to overwhelming response, all the free courses on offer were fully booked within the first day of the event.

Three RSVP volunteers had the opportunity to share their experiences by giving talks on the main stage over the three-day event.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members:

In the last several months, many of you have responded wholeheartedly to the activities of our National Senior Volunteer Month (NSVM). We are moving closer to our big event on 4 September, where we will be celebrating senior volunteerism as part of SG50. It will be the first time in RSVP's history in which our President, Dr. Tony Tan, will be gracing our event as the Guest of Honour. To-date, we have completed about 20 NSVM projects.

PC REFURBISHMENT FOR BEYOND SOCIAL SERVICES

In the latest PC refurbishment project, which took place on 22 May 2015, Koh Juay Meng, President of RSVP Singapore, presented six refurbished computers to our partner, Beyond Social Services. These computers found homes in underprivileged families such as Madam Diljan and her daughter who attended the presentation ceremony at Beyond Social Services. Madam Diljan shared that the gift could not have come at a better time as schools had e-learning projects which require students to complete their assignments from home...

LEARNING JOURNEY AT CHANGI AIRPORT FOR PRIMARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

One of the best gifts we can impart to future generations is our knowledge. Between May and June 2015, 65 RSVP senior volunteers did just that by using their experience to facilitate interactive learning journeys for 120 beneficiaries from eight participating primary schools – Admiralty, Bedok Green, Greendale, Gongshan, Hougang, Lakeside, Paya Lebar Methodist Girls' and Teck Ghee.
