

● RSVP SINGAPORE 17TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The 17th Annual General Meeting of RSVP Singapore was successfully held on 28 November 2015. Ninety members attended, fulfilling the required quorum. RSVP President Mr Koh Juay Meng bade everyone a good afternoon and thanked the volunteers for the good turnout despite the fact that it was not an election year. He also conveyed his deep appreciation to the volunteers who helped make the National Senior Volunteer campaign...

● MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

Fund raising is an essential activity for all Voluntary Welfare Organizations (VWO) because Government grants will only cover a portion of a VWO's annual operating expenses. The extent to which government grants cover costs varies considerably depending on the type of community services being offered. In the case of RSVP Singapore the ratio of grants to funds raised has varied between 60 cents to 40 cents for each dollar spent. The level of grant money was higher during RSVP's earlier years as we deliberately chose...

RSVP SINGAPORE CHARITY GALA DINNER

RSVP President Koh Juay Meng and Executive Director Edmund Song paid a visit to Emeritus Senior Minister Goh Chok Tong on 20 March at his Istana Office. It was ESM Goh, then Prime Minister, who officiated at the inauguration of RSVP Singapore in 1998. ESM had graciously consented to autograph wine bottles to be auctioned at RSVP upcoming Charity Dinner on 30 March. During the visit, ESM was briefed on the progress RSVP made in fostering senior volunteerism especially the success of the National Senior Volunteer Month last year. He expressed support for us to continue with our mission.
