MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

I would like to share with RSVP members and friends a timeless piece of poetry called "Ozymandias" by the 19th Century English poet Percy Bysshe Shelley. It is about what is really important in our lives. (To read the poem click here.) It has relevance for what we do at RSVP.

Like viewing a piece of painting/art, each of us will no doubt go away with our own interpretation and appreciation of the skilful use of words in Shelly's poem to depict the irony and ephemeral nature..

VOLUNTEERS MADE FLAG DAY 2016 A SUCCESS

They came in droves despite the cruel heat in the morning and rainy weather in the afternoon. Over 400 senior and youth volunteers answered our call for help on 14 May and fanned out all over Singapore to sell flags in one of RSVP's signature fundraising events of the year. Amongst the youth volunteers were students from Anglican High, CHIJ St. Nicholas, CHIJ Toa Payoh and Raffles Institution, just to name a few...

TEA WITH PRESIDENT

On 5 May RSVP President Koh Juay Meng hosted the quarterly "Afternoon Tea with the President" session at the Level 8 Multi-Purpose Hall. Over 60 volunteers attended to learn about the latest updates at RSVP as well as to share their suggestions on how we can improve our volunteering activities. In his opening address, Mr Koh talked briefly about the recent manpower movement and re-assured one and all that operations would still go on as usual. He also reminded all that Flag Day...
