IFTAR RAMADAN BREAK FAST COMMUNITY BONDING

On 18 June at 7.15pm, 30 members, staff and beneficiaries from the Malay Youth Literary Association (4PM) broke fast with 30 of our RSVP senior volunteers at our Bishan office. This is the first time RSVP is organising such an event and it is heartening to see seniors and youths of different races and backgrounds coming together to bond in a meaningful occasion. Also, this event symbolised RSVP's drive to push inter-generational volunteerism and aim to promote volunteerism within the Malay community. Mr Nick Iskandar Mohd Idris, the representative from 4PM and the Chairman of Ramadan...

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

We have not stopped our fund raising efforts since our Flag Day in May raising over $70,000 for RSVP. I would like to thank all volunteers and staff involved, without all of you this would not be possible. Immediately following Flag Day is the M+W Singapore Charity Golf on 20th July. This is the second time M+W has adopted RSVP, helping us to raise $447,000 and $380,000 net with the additional contribution from the Tote Board. My deepest gratitude and heartfelt thanks to the M+W management, organising committee and RSVP volunteers and staff for making this possible....

M+W RAISES OVER $400,000 FOR RSVP THROUGH CHARITY GOLF

278 enthusiastic golfers filled the Singapore Island Country Club New Course, for the M+W Singapore Charity Golf 2016 despite the thundery showers in the morning and unpredictable weather in the afternoon on Wednesday 20 July 2016.

This is the second time that M+W Singapore has championed the event by taking on the challenging task of organising and also helping to sell flights for the event. It is a truly commendable effort for a corporation to spearhead organising such a large scale charity golf event with the aim of ...

BRINGING JOY AND CHEER TO RESIDENTS FROM LIONS HOME FOR THE ELDERS

20 staff volunteers from Pon Asia and 15 RSVP senior volunteers brought joy and cheer to 33 residents from Lions Home for the Elders at Bishan on 10 June. RSVP volunteers from the Karaoke Group kick started the 2-hour programme with their robust singing and melodic voices, bringing back lovely memories of the good old days. After a sumptuous high tea, the Pon Asia volunteers took... (Read More)

LEARNING JOURNEY WITH MARSILING PRIMARY SCHOOL

Building a sense of national pride comes from having a good sense of national identity. On a sunny Thursday afternoon, 15 Primary 3 and 4 students from Marsiling Primary School were taken on a learning journey through the Singapore City Gallery, formerly known as the URA Gallery. Through detailed to-scale exhibits and virtual interactive...

RSVP VOLUNTEERS CONDUCT "ART CONVERSATIONS" IN CHINESE DIALECTS

Between 11 and 12 June, for one weekend only, members of the public, in particular seniors were able to relive the excitement of Chinatown's hawker scenes and discover old trades of Singapore's past through engaging conversations. In an exciting collaboration with National Gallery Singapore, RSVP volunteers provided gallery tours in two different Chinese dialects – Hokkien (11 June) and Cantonese (12 June). About 20 people attended the tour on each day and many of them were in their late 50s...

ABOUT RSVP SINGAPORE

RSVP Singapore – The Organisation of Senior Volunteers is a non-profit organisation launched by the then Prime Minister Mr Goh Chok Tong in 1998. Since then, RSVP Singapore has been actively engaging seniors in purpose-driven volunteerism. With over 1,000 members, RSVP Singapore serve more than 150,000 beneficiaries each year including the mentally disadvantaged, at risk children from low income families, needy and lonely seniors through its community service programmes. RSVP Singapore was a recipient of the 2014 Charity Council's Special Commendation Award for Strong Management Practices.
